Description:

67 North Main Street is a two-story, three-bay, two-pile, frame vernacular residence constructed circa 1940. The dwelling consists of a rectangular main block with an attached three-bay garage abutting the southwest elevation. The side gabled roof is sheathed with asphalt shingles. An interior brick chimney pierces the roof on the ridge of the garage. The exterior of the dwelling is clad in composite shingles. Fenestration is mostly symmetrical. Windows consist of three-part units with a center plate glass pane flanked by six-over-six double hung sash units that may be original. Each window unit is flanked by undersized paneled shutters. Entrance is gained to the dwelling through a one-story vestibule, set between the garage and the main block, with a four-panel, six-light door. Its foundation is concrete. The house is set back from the road, and other elevations are not visible from the public right-of-way.

The garage is a one-story, three-bay wing off the south end of the house. Its gabled roof is clad with asphalt shingles and features a centered shed-roofed dormer. The chimney is located north of the dormer. The garage's stuccoed walls have three wood roll-top doors with six inset lights each. Its foundation is concrete.

History: The Sanborn Atlas of 1916 shows an outbuilding associated with the building at 69-71 North Main Street standing in the location where this house was later constructed. The same outbuilding appears on the Sanborn Atlas of 1933. The house appears on the historic aerial of 1940 and all subsequent aerials. The garage is first clearly visible in 1953 but could pre-date that historic aerial.

Setting:

67 North Main Street is sited on a rectangular parcel (Block 23, Lot 45.01) located on the west side of North Main Street in Cranbury Township, Middlesex County, New Jersey. The dwelling is oriented with its primary elevation facing southeast and is set back approximately 200 feet from North Main Street, behind 69-71 North Main Street. A gravel driveway leads west from North Main Street to an attached garage on the dwelling's southwest elevation. The property is lightly wooded. 67 North Main Street is located in a mixed residential and commercial neighborhood surrounded by residential and commercial properties dating from the mid-nineteenth to the early twentieth centuries.
